

Bring Your Jacket

Kyla

I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you

I like to think the both of us
Can read between the lines
No use of sentimental conversation
So why even try
Tired of having to grit my teeth
Hold my tongue, make believe my closure
It's a written lie, a silent vow of
Leaving three words to maintain my composure

I'm so in love with you
Your hands to your heart
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love
I'm so in love
I'm so in love with you

So I say drive safe
I say take care
I say bring your jacket when it's cold
Cause I'd hate for you to shiver
Even though it's rare
I say call me when you get home
Cause I tend to think of a thousand reasons
Why I shouldn't let you walk alone

I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you

It's another day of us
Hiding our anxious hearts
Getting better at pretending
Life is fine when we're apart
How you lie, how you lose
How you dream when you're awake
How you fight, how you laugh
You give but never take

So I say drive safe
I say take care
I say bring your jacket when it's cold
Cause I'd hate for you to shiver
Cause I tend to think of a thousand reasons
Why I shouldn't let you walk alone

I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you

So I say drive safe
I say take care
Cause I'd hate for you to shiver
Cause I tend to think of a thousand reasons
Why I shouldn't let you walk alone

I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
I'm so in love with you
