

Journey

Kyla

For a while I stare at this place in front of me
Looked around see everything surrounded me
I wait patiently, enthusiastically
To a journey that will surprise me

Beautiful places, beautiful people
This world is vast and endless
Sometimes I get confused
Tell me where do I begin

I travel, I learn, I grow
I stretch my limits, that's how I do it
(I explore this world, embrace this land)
All I see is positivity
Opened myself to new possibilities

My imagination's got a hold of me
I'll turn my dreams into reality
I see this world has so much to offer me
I'm a child, I'm running wild, I am free

Beautiful places, beautiful people
This world is vast and endless
Sometimes I get confused
Tell me where do I begin

I travel, I learn, I grow
I stretch my limits, that's how I do it
(I explore this world, embrace this land)
All I see is positivity
Opened myself to new possibilities

What a joy
How can I recover from this journey
Tomorrow I will go again
I will fly to another place that takes me high

I travel, I learn, I grow
I stretch my limits, that's how I do it
(I explore this world, embrace this land)
All I see is positivity
Opened myself to new possibilities

(Take this journey)
Come and fly away (come and fly with me)
To another place (take this journey)
There can be (endless possibilities)
Opened myself to new possibilities

I learn, I grow, I fly, I go
No...
Fly... fly...
