I look into your eyes, so far away There's trouble in your mind You're losing faith Hey now, let me hold you It'll be okay! Coz i will love you Till they take my heart away.

Remember when you called
And said goodbye
We thought we'd lost it all
And so did i
Even if i lost you
I would feel the same
Coz i will love you
Till they take my heart away.

Believe in me
I'm here to stay
I will love you
Till they take my heart away.

Now we're stronger than before We've made it throught I never felt more sure Because of you Hey now! are you listening? Do you hear me say "i will love you Till they take my heart away"
