

Trust Issues

Kyla

Trust issues
But I got
Trust issues
Trust issues

You don't know baby
What it is you do to me
I've been losing sleep over trivial things
Like the way you talk to me, boy
Got me reminiscing 'bout the past
How we used to stay up all night

Dreaming 'bout what ifs, why this should last
And after time and time and time and time again
I still find myself attached to you

But I got trust issues, babe
Some real dilemmas
A lot of unwritten pain
Repressed and unseen
And I hope you know that none of this has anything to do with you
It's all me, and I need time
To get myself clean
Won't you wait for me
Wait for me baby
Cause I've been waiting for you

We've had our fights
We've had our wrongs
Hopefully time has allowed us to be stronger
And better and closer
Do you feel it too?
Baby, I'll be waiting for you

Even if it takes a year or two or five more
I'll be here, I'll be here
I know you're not one to let anyone hold you down
But I wanna be the one who turns you around

But I got trust issues, babe
Some real dilemmas
A lot of unwritten pain
Repressed and unseen
And I hope you know that none of this has anything to do with you
It's all me, and I need time
To get myself clean
Won't you wait for me
Wait for me baby
Cause I've been waiting for you

Wait, wait, wait, wait
Wait for me
I got trust issues, baby
Wait for me
Will you wait for me
Wait for me

Wait for me
