

Hate You The Least

Kyle Hume

Look online, feeling dead inside is trending
Everybody's over happy endings
If money could buy you sad
Then we'd all be happily overspending
'Cause it's cool now to be mean
Someone new to hate every week so
If I gotta hate everything, well girl

I hate you the least from your head down to your feet
And even at your worst you're still the best for me
And everybody says that you must be make-believe
'Cause everybody hates everything so I'll keep it simple and sweet
Girl, I hate you the least

I hate you the
I hate you the least
I hate you the

Yeah I know by now we're not supposed to be
Feeling overly okay
I know by now I should have my doubts
But I'm still as sure to this day
They say don't you ever go buy a ring no
'Cause you're gonna hate her in a week so
If I gotta hate everything, well girl

I hate you the least from your head down to your feet
And even at your worst you're still the best for me
And everybody says that you must be make-believe
'Cause everybody hates everything so I'll keep it simple and sweet
Girl, I hate you the least

I hate you the
I hate you the least
I hate you the

'Cause everybody hates everything so I'll keep it simple and sweet
