

Red Flag

Kyle Hume

She don't got a red flag in sight
Momma said that I should
Lock it down for good
And I just might
Yeah I just might
Like do you even know what you look like
Way too cute for me
And I kinda don't believe
That you're all mine
Yeah you're all mine

She don't need the Gucci or the Prada
She go full Target not a problem
Saving money looking like a million dollars
She don't care about the likes or the follows
And I know that
I got feelings and I can't hold back
She a good girl but she so bad
All mine and that's so sad
For y'all (Yeah for y'all cause)

She don't got a red flag in sight
Momma said that I should
Lock it down for good
And I just might
Yeah I just might
Like do you even know what you look like
Way too cute for me
And I kinda don't believe
That you're all mine
Yeah you're all mine

She likes to keep it private
I ain't talking islands
No I ain't talking pj's
I be talking nights in
In our pj's vibin'
We ain't even trying
Love the way you know me
Could afford a boujee dinner no need
Chicken nuggets on the couch low key
Couple kisses for dessert so sweet (So sweet)

She don't got a red flag in sight
Momma said that I should
Lock it down for good
And I just might
Yeah I just might
Like do you even know what you look like
That you're all mine
Yeah you're all mine
Too bad so sad for y'all
Too bad so sad for y'all
Cause she's all mine
Too bad so sad for y'all

Too bad so sad for y'all
Cause she's all mine
Too bad so sad for y'all
Too bad so sad for y'all
Cause she's all mine
Too bad so sad for y'all
Too bad so sad for y'all
Cause she's all mine
