

Ain't Nobody Hotter

Kyle Park

I can see your neon eyes cuttin' through the barroom smoke
Stopped me in my tracks like a stick in the spokes
I see you workin' that smile from across the room
My heart's burnin' just to learn about you

Like a bowl of moonshine on a Saturday night
You light me up, you're blowin' my mind
Like the fireworks stand on the Fourth of July
There ain't nobody hotter
There ain't nobody hotter

I need somethin' cold as ice just to cool me down
And a hook on a line that I can throw out
I'm gonna make my move but I don't know what to say
Another look from you, and I'm blown away

Like the red sun up against the clear blue sky
You light me up, you're blowin' my mind
Like the fireworks stand on the Fourth of July
There ain't nobody hotter
There ain't nobody hotter
There ain't nobody hotter
There ain't nobody hotter

Should I ask you to dance? Yeah I outta
Oh I can't believe somebody brought ya
Girl, I knew it from the moment I saw ya
There ain't nobody hotter

Like a bowl of moonshine on a Saturday night
You light me up, you're blowin' my mind
Like the fireworks stand on the Fourth of July
There ain't nobody hotter
There ain't nobody hotter

Like the red sun up against the clear blue sky
You light me up, you're blowin' my mind
Like the fireworks stand on the Fourth of July
There ain't nobody hotter
There ain't nobody hotter
There ain't nobody hotter
There ain't nobody hotter
