

Drive You

Kyle Park

Damn the rearview mirror for letting you linger on Damn the radio for playing that same sad song
And to hell with all these signs reminding me you ain't here
But you ain't gone

The sun comes up
The sun goes down
You're still around
You're still around

But how many miles will it take 'til I know
If I'm gonna be all right
You know it's my heart that'll break if I go
But it's only a matter of time
'Til I drive you out of my mind

All I wanna do is get away clean
And burn a little more of this gasoline
Run the red lights taking every corner way too fast
You know what I mean
Even though I'm reckless you'll be the one who wrecks this for me

The moon will change
The stars will fade
Days go by
And I feel the same

But how many miles will it take 'til I know
If I'm gonna be all right
You know it's my heart that'll break if I go
But it's only a matter of time
'Til I drive you out of my mind

So long goodbye
No need to try
To make this right
I just want to drive

But how many miles will it take 'til I know
If I'm gonna be all right
You know it's my heart that'll break if I go
But it's only a matter of time
'Til I drive you out of my mind
'Til I drive you out of my mind
