

Rewind

Kyle Park

I'd pour the whiskey back in the bottle
And put the bottle back on the shelf
Take the words "I don't love you"
And put 'em back in my mouth
Those tear drops would've never left her eyes
And I wouldn't be here losing my mind
If I could rewind

I wish I told my friends I was busy
The day I told my grandpa no
Yeah, we just spent the whole day fishing
Down there at canyon cove
What I'd give to watch that bobber on his line
And hear his same old stories one more time
If I could rewind

Fast forward back to yesterday
I'd hit pause instead of play
And take it all in
But the simple fact is
Can't turn back the hands of time
Lord knows how hard I've tried
'Cause life don't always give you
Second chances

Fast forward back to yesterday
I'd hit pause instead of play
And take it all in
But the simple fact is
Can't turn back the hands of time
Lord knows how hard I've tried
'Cause life don't always give you
Second chances

I should've seen Merle Haggard
The last time he was here
They shoulda stopped John Paul from driving
After drinking that last beer
Now it's hard to sing along to Mama Tried
And pass by that wooden cross where my friend died
If I could rewind
Oh, if I could rewind

I poured the whiskey back in the bottle
And put the bottle back on the shelf
