

The Key To Good Whiskey

Kyle Park

I like strong tequila straight, no salt, no lime
And I'll even toast Champagne from time to time
And I've paid too much for a bottle of red wine
But lookin' back on history, I've never had bad whiskey

Because it ain't what's on the label
It's what's sitting on the table
In a bottle from a barrel
Lord, it ain't too hard to find
It's what I use to fix me
When I'm wishin' she would miss me
Yea, the key to good whiskey
Is a woman on your mind

Well it's always waiting for me back at home
And it's great for drowning sorrows when she's gone
Hell, it works well if I'm right or if I'm wrong
And it's so damn good for mixin', and you don't need a prescription

Because it ain't what's on the label
It's what's sitting on the table
In a bottle from a barrel
Lord, it ain't too hard to find
It's what I use to fix me
When I'm wishin' she would miss me
Yea, the key to good whiskey
Is a woman on your mind
Yea, the key to good whiskey
Is a woman on your mind

Some people say that too much drinkin'
Can be bad for your thinkin', but that ain't true
It helps me with the lonely, darlin' it's the only
Remedy that gets me through

Because it ain't what's on the label
It's what's sitting on the table
In a bottle from a barrel
Lord, it ain't too hard to find
It's what I use to fix me
When I'm wishin' she would miss me
Yea, the key to good whiskey
Is a woman on your mind
Yea, the key to good whiskey
Is a woman on your mind
Is a woman on your mind
A woman on your mind
