

Who, What, When, Where, And Why

Kyle Park

Who'd have thought we'd end up here
And when did you start drinking beer
Ain't everything I need to hear tonight
I'd love for us to be crystal clear tonight
Like where'd you get that new red dress
And who you lookin' to impress
And why do I feel like I'm running out of time

Tell me who's that man on the telephone
Is this what you do when you say you're gone
And when did you start stayin' out all night
Tell me where's the woman I used to know
And why up 'til now I didn't let her go
Yeah he's always on your mind, and my reason for goodbye
Is your who, what, when, where, and why

Why do all these strangers know your name
How'd you earn your claim to fame
The first time when he brought you to this bar
What did he say, what did he do
Where will you go when we're both through
And is he still outside waiting for you in his car

Tell me who's that man on the telephone
Is this what you do when you say you're gone
And when did you start stayin' out all night
Tell me where's the woman I used to know
And why up 'til now I didn't let her go
Yeah he's always on your mind, and my reason for goodbye
Is your who, what, when, where, and why

I've known there's been a who
What, when, and where
But I still don't know why

So tell me who's that man on the telephone
Is this what you do when you say you're gone
And when did you start stayin' out all night
Tell me where's the woman I used to know
And why up 'til now I didn't let her go
Yeah he's always on your mind, and my reason for goodbye
Is your who, what, when, where, and why
Yeah he's always on your mind, and my reason for goodbye
Is your who, what, when, where, and why
