Lay It On Me

Kyler England

all these faces look the same but it's not you there's smoke but not a flame no it's nothing like you all i want is to see some sign maybe something to believe tell me i'm wrong tell me you want me i can take anything you can lay it on me lay it on me today is like the day before without you the shadows lengthen on the floor without you i am haunted by your sympathy will you tell me what it means?

i believed that fate would save us but time it heals the pain while it steals you away
