

Drained

Kylesa

They take from you and they take from me
The pain, the message is so unclear
I feel the anger that you project
I feel the pain you know?

I can't explain
This pain I feel I know
I'm hopeless without my distress
I want to relax but I can't
I feel explosive my rage

The change and when I've known
And when I feel no self control
I spit the world that you create
I know my own mistake
I want to relax but I can't
I feel my anger drop to my knee
I want to go back try to say
I feel know you
