

Happy With Yourself

Kylie Cantrall

Thought it was me on your mind
From morning through the night
Told myself there was no one else
I ignored all the signs
Let my heart take the bribe
I could tell
You only cared about yourself

So, how'd we end up here?
What we had it disappeared
That's all you cause now there's no more us
And it's oh so crystal clear
When you're staring in the mirror
You gon' see the one you really love

Hope you're happy with yourself
Na, na, na, na
Hope you're happy with yourself
Na, na, na, na

I hope you're happy
I hope you see
That you're exactly where you should be
Home all alone
Calling my phone (Leave a message at the tone)
I'm on Ventura
I'm at the grove
Up in the hills where we used to go
I was there for you
Now I'm a ghost
And I bet you want to know

So, how'd we end up here?
What we had it disappeared
That's all you cause now there's no more us (No more, no more)
And it's oh so crystal clear
When you're staring in the mirror
You gon' see the one you really love

Hope you're happy with yourself
Na, na, na, na
Hope you're happy with yourself
Na, na, na, na

And I hope that you're happy, but one day you'll see
That it's hard to be happy
When you're not with me baby
