

For All I'm Worth

Kylie Minogue

Who's tellin' me who's wrong or right
When I don't come home at night?
No mother, no lover

I'm finished with complaints on me
I'm not what you want me to be
No way, hear what I say

Don't keep me apart from the one I love
Don't keep me apart
Don't keep me apart from the one I love
Just let me be, just let me be
Just let me be, just let me be
For all I'm worth, for all I'm worth

Who's tellin' us about the babies?
Don't you think it's up to the ladies?
Don't confuse us
Or abuse us

I don't allow some power freak
To make me feel small and weak
No way hear what I say

Just let me be
For all I'm worth
