

What's It Gonna Take?

Kylie Minogue

What's it gonna take?

So good tonight
Under the lights
Boy you could feel
And I don't want to fight
Something so right
Something so real

You can't imagine
All these thoughts I'm having
Can you feel it too
'Cause I can't contain myself
And it's all because of you

What's it gonna take for you to
Finally come over to me
How'm I gonna make you turn and look my way
I know that you want it I can feel the vibes already Baby come
I promise that you'll want to stay

Could there be more
Getting down on the floor
Can you imagine what's behind closed doors
Just you and me
Dancin' so free, yeah

You can't imagine
All these thoughts I'm having
Can you feel it too
'Cause I can't control myself
And it's all because of you

Come over here...

You can't imagine
All these thoughts I'm having
Can you feel it too
'Cause I can't contain myself
And it's all because of you
