

Every High

Kyson

(Won't tear you)

I won't tear you from a life
I want to paint your love, too
I stomped on the floodlights

If every high comes down
Don't wanna be flooding you now

I won't tear you from the right
I want to see your eyelids sink
I stomped on my own silence

If every high comes down
I'm kind of afraid of you now

(Won't tear you)

I won't tear you from a place
You want to beam the lights on you
So stomp on my own silence

If every high comes down
Don't wanna be flooding you now

I won't tear you, respect the tide
It seems to be the right move
So stomp on the floodlights

If every high comes down
I'm kind of afraid of you now

(Won't tear you)

If every high comes down
I'm kind of afraid of you now

(There's nothing like feeling the rush)

(Won't tear you)
