

Forget the Rules

Kyson

Am I looking If I'm changing
But the current is amazing
The town small
The city so fucked
The creek so dark
Do colorful sparks come back
Like lauries on a long lonely road
Deep scars
Complex, like all hearts
Strong shields from the start
Shield down and we start

Forget the rules
These endless rooms
And corridors
Forget the rules
And never hide in them
