Don't give me flowers, don't waste your time
It is broken tainted heart of mine
This is a warning, I am too damaged from within
I think I'm falling, too deep, too fast
If you're kind to me, I will at last
I know I'm difficult, but I just can't erase the pain

'Cause I'm afraid to love again
And I am scared to fall, my friend
When I'm with you, I am free, I am living, I can be who I am
I am stronger, I am happy
But I'm afraid to love again

Don't be so caring, don't be too kind
I'm scared I end up wasting all your time
But when I'm with you, I feel my walls are crumbling thin
Am I just dreaming, too deep too strong
You've been kind, I mean, oh, is this wrong?
I know I'm difficult, but I just can't erase the pain

'Cause I'm afraid to love again
And I am scared to fall, my friend
When I'm with you, I am free, I am living, I can be who I am
I am stronger, I am happy
But I'm afraid to love again

My heart is like a time ball ticking to the clock
Are you the one? Are you the one?
My heart is like a time ball ticking in the dark
When you're around, when you're around

But I'm afraid to love again (to love again)
And I am scared (I am scared) to fall, my friend (to fall, my friend)
When I'm with you, I am free, I am living, I can be who I am
I am stronger, I am happy
But I'm afraid, (I'm afraid) to love again (to love again)

My heart is like a time ball ticking to the clock
Are you the one? Are you the one?
My heart is like a time ball ticking in the dark
When you're around, when you're around
