

Another Season in Hell

L.A. Guns

Time cuts like a razor
It don't heal for me
Don't talk all the words that you swallow
The ones you can't erase

That's the best mistake that I made

Pull up the curtain
Now I can see
The wrong book with the right kind of cover
That I don't want to read

Take your promises that you fake
That's the last mistake that I'll make

Yeah, just one more season in Hell
It's more of the same
My pain
It burns in the first degree
But no worse than you did to me
Just one more season here

Gave up on a savior
I won't find one here
I won't cry for the fools and the hopeful
Cause we're not worth a tear

Take your promises that you fake
That's the last mistake that I'll make

Yeah, just one more season in Hell
It's more of the same
My pain
It burns in the first degree
But no worse than you did to me
Just one more season here

Started out in love with me
Something died along the way
Just one more memory to dwell
I'm writhing from what I did to myself

Time cuts like a razor
I don't feel a thing
One more I'm no worse for the damage
Already done to me

Take your promises that you fake
That's the last mistake that I'll make

Yeah, just one more season in Hell
It's more of the same
My pain
It burns in the first degree
But no worse than you did to me
Just one more season here
