

If You Wanna

L.A. Guns

Tell me what you want me to know
Stay around 'cause I wanna be here
I stop you 'cause you're good at repeating
A story even you don't believe in

You don't bleed
But you feel the pain
Through the armor that you built to be brave
Don't need what they're talkin' about
It's up to you
If you want it

Do it if you wanna
Can't tell you what you can't do
Do it if you wanna
Play tough but you can play too
Do it if you wanna
Can't tell you what you can't do
Do it if you wanna
Play tough but they can't play you

You're not polished but you still got the shine
They know you but they're asking your name
You're diving but you're heading to nowhere
You're solid but you shake like a flame

You don't bleed
But you feel the pain
Through the armor that you built to be brave
Don't need what they're talkin' about
It's up to you
If you want it

Yeah, you want it bad
Ah, yeah, you want it, man
Yeah, you want it bad
Ah, yeah, you want it
You want it

You don't need to carry it all inside all your life
I hope you know it isn't right, it ain't right
I know you wanna fight
Yeah, so do I
So do I

You don't bleed
But you feel the pain
Through the armor that you built to be brave
Don't need what they're talkin' about
It's up to you
If you want it
Don't need what they're talking about
It's up to you
Ah, yeah

Yeah, you want it bad

Ah, yeah, you want it bad
You want it

Ah, yeah, you want it bad
You want it all

Ah, you want it bad
Ooh, you want it
