

Loaded Bomb

L.A. Guns

Well, I had enough
Damn I'm sick of this shit
Stacked about ten feet high
And mighty fall down
As I make the rounds
Take 'em on until they die
On my watch
I take a deep breath
Keep it in until I choke
Back all the laughter
Don't give a fuck
About getting this goddamn joke

Don't you see the difference
Between you and I
You can't play the victim
When you're always playing sides
Now there's just a tiny hole
Like you were never there at all

Woah, you're a loaded bomb
You set it, leave the scene
Then you detonate
You're a loaded bomb
Yeah, you can blow me
Blow me away
Common in your tactic
Talking 'hind my back
While you run, run, run away
You're a loaded bomb
You run away
Then you fucking explode

It's the Hollywood crap
The make believe trap
That throws you down and grabs and holds
Onto the lie
It's noble to die
In youth before you get too old
Photos tell
You're not living well
Hit you like a concrete wall
In all your fears
And rainwater tears
Drown you out until you fall

Don't you see the difference
Between me and you
You can't blame the system
When you're always play the fool
Like you were never there at all

Woah, you're a loaded bomb
You set it, leave the scene
Then you detonate

Yeah, you can blow me
Blow me away
You're a loaded bomb
You run away

I get to watch you explode
Gonna watch you explode

You're a loaded bomb
You set it, leave the scene
Then you detonate
You're a loaded bomb
Yeah, you can blow me
Blow me away
You're a loaded bomb
You run away

Yeah you fucking explode
You fucking explode

Boom
