

Stay Away

L.A. Guns

You got a shake in your step
I'm standing here like a rock
Made out of muscle so big
Make the world shout out
I draw the line in the sand
I'm not bitch that you hoped
Like any film where the girl and monster play
Set in LA

Getting tired of dragging down this crumbling road
You're the kind that never learns
Maybe now you'll finally stay away
Stay away
Just stay
Away
Stay away
Just stay
Away

I got a taste of success
You taste the blood in your mouth
Like getting punched in the face
And your teeth knocked out
You draw the rope to a noose
It's not as tight as you hoped
Like any film where the girl and monster play
Except it's today

Getting tired of dragging down this crumbling road
You're the kind that never learns
Maybe now you'll finally stay away
Stay away
Just stay
Away
Stay away
Just stay
Away

Getting tired of dragging down this crumbling road
You're the kind that never learns
Maybe now you'll finally stay away
Stay away
Just stay
Away
Stay away
Just stay
Stay away
Just stay
Away
Just stay away
