

Would

L.A. Guns

Would you wait
If I had to leave
Would it be a mistake
Oh would
Would you go away

Time passed by
Through angel eyes
Nothing left to hide
Can't change
Time passed by

Could you still love me
If I lost my way
Would you still love me
Would you want me to stay

Would you give to me
All that you have
Nothing more to forgive
Oh would
It's all I need to live

Time keeps passing by
I can't stop the lies
I can't stop these crying eyes
I've got nothing left to hide

Could you still love me
If I lost my way
Would you still love me
Would you want me to stay

It's been a lifetime and a million miles
I got no time to preach to your choir

Would you wait
Would you wait

Could you still love me
If I got lost along the way
Would you still love me
Would you want me to stay

Could you still love me
If I got lost along the way
Would you still love me
Would you want me to stay

Would would you want me
Would
