

You Can't Walk Away

L.A. Guns

Nothing's right gonna be a long way home tonight
A lover's fight I've been away too long
Another day rolls by and it feels like an old friend
Nobody wants to do it no one seems to care
And nobody wants to listen anyway

You can't walk away
Somethin' inside is telling you
Why is it so hard to do
You can't walk away
As it all falls apart
Leave with your heart

Nobody pays your precious way
Thought it was an easy thing to do
But when you turned around something told you
Go back where they know you

You can't walk away
Somethin' inside is telling you
Why is it so hard to do
You can't walk away
As it all falls apart
Leave with your heart

You can't walk away
Somethin' inside is telling you
Why is it so hard to do
You can't walk away
As it all falls apart
Leave with your heart

Nothing's right gonna be a long way home tonight
A lover's fight I've been away too long
But when you turned around something told you
Just go back to where they know you, yeah

You can't walk away
Somethin' in your heart is telling you
Why is it so hard to do
You can't walk away
As it all falls apart
Leave with your heart

You can't walk away
And leave me
With this broken heart again
You can't walk away
As it all falls apart
Leave with your heart

Nothing's right gonna be a long way home...
