

Panic

L Devine

Drunken nights and pillow fights lately
Trying to keep it fun
Careful not to touch me in the wrong place
Now look what you've done

You lay where I'm lying, keeping me warm
I won't say I like it, no, not at all
Trying to fight it, but I can't deny it, no

It's time to panic, I'm in love
I never wanted this for us
Time to pack it up and run
Wanted nothing more than lust

Tell me why you cross the line baby
Where you trying to go
Better when theres nothing worth saving
Better off alone

You lay where I'm lying, keeping me warm
I won't say I like it, no, not at all
Trying to fight it, but I can't deny it, no

It's time to panic, I'm in love
I never wanted this for us
Time to pack it up and run
Wanted nothing more than lust
Time to panic, I'm in love
I never wanted this for us
Time to pack it up and run
Wanted nothing more than lust

But its a little late to leave
You really got a hold on me
Never should have got this far, let this be
But its a little late to leave
You really got a hold on me
Never should have got this far, let this be

It's time to panic, I'm in love
I never wanted this for us
Time to pack it up and run
Wanted nothing more than lust
It's time to panic, I'm in love
