

Push It Down

L Devine

Not long till you're gone forever
I guess I gotta get my shit together
Said it's fine, we could be whatever
It just sucks, 'cause there's no one better

Than you, I lied a little
I'm not fine, yeah, I cried a little
Easy, come now, we're easy going
The romance, I was only joking

Keep check of my weakness showing
Cut ties without ever knowing
I love you, but it's not your problem
We agreed it could never blossom, so

I'll just say, I'm sorry
Leave and text you hardly
Go and fuck somebody
When I just want you

Doing mind-karate
Fighting feelings off me
Just enjoy the party
Never give no clue

Push it, push it, push it down
Never let you know I'm drowning, no

You're so cool, wish I was the same
Teach me how to do it your way
Be unbreakable, emotions unavailable
Detach myself like you do
Make it seem like you're replaceable
I love you, but it's not your problem
We agreed it could never blossom, so

I'll just say, I'm sorry
Leave and text you hardly
Go and fuck somebody
When I just want you

Doing mind-karate
Fighting feelings off me
Just enjoy the party
Never give no clue

Push it, push it, push it down
Never let you know I'm drowning, no

I'll just say, I'm sorry
Leave and text you hardly
Go and fuck somebody
When I just want you

Doing mind-karate
Fighting feelings off me
Just enjoy the party

Never give no clue

Push it, push it, push it down

Push it, push it, push it down
Never let you know I'm drowning, no

Push it, push it, push it down
Never let you know I'm drowning, no
