Ain't no brother gonna save you from this one
Ain't no father gonna save you from this one
Ain't no brother, ain't no father
Ain't no mother gonna save you from this one

Sixty seasons hunting you to be even
One more reason wanting you to believe that
Ain't no brother, ain't no father
Ain't no mother gonna save you from this one

Now you're standing in the middle of nowhere
You look behind and see no shine of shadow
Ain't no brother, ain't no father
Ain't no mother gonna save you from this one

Ain't no one

Ain't no brother gonna save you from this one
Ain't no father gonna save you from this one
Ain't no brother, ain't no father

I think I passed away
