

Eyes of Lust

Laakso

those words ain't hers, it's all spells to show me hell I can't help hearing, stop listening to those lies the lies of lust ain't no you should trust still I ruin all I have for them lust breeds hope, hope makes me dream usually all dreams come real

the same blood pumping in us the same mistakes comitted by us same still different, it's the same old radical tricks
hooked up on the radical kicks

those eyes ain't hers, they belong to something worse I can't help looking, they swallow everything they see

old radical tricks

we're trying this hard but we won't get far
