Right Back At You

You only call me when you need something from me Like your name on a guestlist. You only call me when you need something from me Like a drink and a dinner. You only tell me about the love of your life And the kind of guys youÂ're after. You make sure that I know that I ainÂ't your type And that youÂ'll never fall in love with me ever.

First I thought you had it all. Now I know you needed love. First I thought then I stopped. First I thought you where too much. Then I couldn't stay untouched. First I thought then I stopped.

You ask me why, since when and how much When I tell you that I love you. You ask me why, since when and how come When I tell you how much I need you. You take a look around to see what you can find To find out if you will ever be satisfied. You make sure that I know that I ain't your type And that you'll never fall in love with me ever.

First I thought

Loved her so much might love you more But please could you be her just for a little while Remind me of the times we had when love was all

First I thought
