

Oh-No

LAB

I don't know how she lives the life she brings
Crazy living on a string
No one can take her down
Making trouble in her town
No one answers with her loving relations
That's the price for her freedom
She's taking all the drugs, she's free
Living on the ecstasy

Oh-no
She'll set your heart on fire
Oh-no
She's gonna play you like a choir, yeah

He's watching everything, he sees
His time, his opportunity
No one can take her hand
"I love you" she tells every man
But she'll kick just to hide all your worries
Sleep with you and take all your money
Don't go with her, just have a look
Your heart and everything she took

Oh-no
She'll set your heart on fire
Oh-no
She's gonna play ya like a choir

It's not what you want, it's not what you need
When your lover doesn't feel the same
It's not what you want, it's not what you need
When your lover doesn't feel the same

Oh-no
Oh-no
Oh
