

Real Ones

LAB

Yeah, sad pictures in my mind, punchline
Real ones gon' protect you when ya light shine
Fake ones gon' respect ya in the night time
Real ones gon' respect ya til' ya light die

But I spent too much time chasing ghosts
Cause I thought it would be worth it
And I let all the real ones down

Yeah, bad ... come and go, that's the punchline
Real ones gon' protect you when ya light shine
Fake ones gon' respect you in the night time
Real ones gon' respect you til ya light die, die, die
Til ya light die

Real ones bleed with you on the frontline
Fake ones always show up when they want time
Real ones gonna show up at the right time, time, time

But I spent too much time chasing ghosts
Thought it would be worth it
And I let all the real ones down
Who didn't deserve it, now
Now I got all the things I want
Thought that it would be perfect
But it's uncomfortable
And I'm missing you

I'm missing you
I'm missing you
And I'm missing you
I'm missing you
There is no one who could take your place
I'm missing you
And I'm missing you
I'm missing you
I'm missing you
I'm missing you
There is no one who could take your place
I'm missing you
I'm missing you
I'm missing you
There is no one who could take your place

Yeah, sad pictures in my mind, punchline
Real ones gon' protect you when ya light shine
Fake ones gon' respect ya in the night time
Real ones gon' respect ya til ya light die, die, die

Real ones bleed with you on the frontline
Fake ones always show up when they want time
Real ones gonna show up at the right time, time, time
Through the tough times
Real ones stand up like civil rights lines
Fake ones stand out like a lunch line
Fake ones never share when it's lunch time

Real ones stay with you even with a heartbreak
Real ones celebrate, reminiscing cigar taste
Real ones gone remind you in the grass there are snakes
Real ones gone remind you the fuel that ya heart takes, takes, takes

But I spent too much time chasing ghosts
Thought it would be worth it
And I let all the real ones down
Who didn't deserve it
Now I got all the things I want
Thought that it would be perfect
But its uncomfortable
And I'm missing you

I'm missing you
I'm missing you
I'm missing you
I'm missing you
I'm missing you
I'm missing you
And I'm missing you

I'm missing you
But I spent too much time chasing ghosts
Thought it would be worth it
I'm missing you
And I let all the real ones down
And I'm missing you
I'm missing you
Now I got all the things I want
Thought that it would be perfect
I'm missing you
But its uncomfortable
And I'm missing you
