

She's Gone

LAB

Feel your face, your warm embrace
In doorways
Dead like flowers
On a throne

Why don't you take me away for one more day?
I remember when we stayed at home
And talked through the early dawn
Come on feel it now

They've gone, babies gone
He's gone, she's gone
They've gone, babies gone
He's gone, she's gone

They've gone, babies gone
He's gone, she's gone
They've gone, babies gone
He's gone, she's gone

Feel your face, your warm embrace
In doorways
Dead like flowers
On a throne

Take me away for one more day
I remember when we stayed at home
And talked through the early dawn
Come on, baby, feel it now

They've gone, babies gone
He's gone, she's gone
They've gone, babies gone
He's gone, she's gone (To the higher ground)

They've gone, babies gone
He's gone, she's gone (I don't know)
They've gone, babies gone
He's gone, she's gone

Whoa, whoa
I didn't want those memories to fade away
Whoa, whoa
I didn't want those memories to fade away
