LAB

I'm a writer, I have no fear
Running through the flames and my heart is clear
Creator of what I know
Music is my life, yes, it is my soul

Moving on the floor, let your body go
Laughing in the air, always giving hope
My nature is giving more
I can feel the love walking through my door

Running from the bad man
(He'll take you on and on)
Be careful who you're trusting
(They'll break you 'til they're gone)
Listen when I tell you
(That life can be your song)
You can get away from playing
Because it lets you know

(Signs)
You got to know the signs (Signs)
You have to read the signs (Signs)
You got to know (Living in a memory)

I'm a young boy
Gonna make my way
Taking on the world, I got things to say
Survivor of these city streets
Learning how to live from the people I meet
I can hold my own with my shield and sword
Working in a job 'til the wheels fall off
Got money in my pocket and my belly's full
Nothing in this world 'cause my body tells me

You got to know the signs (Signs)
You have to read the signs (Signs)
You got to know (Living in a memory)

Running from the bad man
(He'll take you on and on)
Be careful who you're trusting
(They'll break you 'til they're gone)
You gotta listen when I tell you
(That life can be your song)
You can get away from playing
Because he'll let you know
