Feeling like this

I knew it

My opponent is you, this frame is coming into place yeah

Frame Frame Frame

The rules of the game, Yeah Yeah

Whoever's heart gets revealed first

Loses

Just when I laid down my guard

It chased after me, love game

Your footprints, love game

I fell for this trap

Love is a maze, love game

Just when we were about to miss each other

Our love game

It's getting more interesting

No one knows how it will end

Our love game

The tension of pulling and pushing

It's getting harder to breathe
I can't stop this feeling

I can't read your heart in one try
I can't catch you, you're running away, yeah yeah
It's not easy, yeah yeah
I'm using all my tricks to confuse you
If you're burning up, that means I win
You can't catch up

Just when I laid down my guard
It chased after me, love game
Your footprints, love game

I fell for this trap
Love is a maze, love game
Just when we were about to miss each other

Our love game
It's getting more interesting
No one knows how it will end

Our love game
The tension of pulling and pushing
It's getting harder to breathe
I can't stop this feeling

Now tell me the answer, yeah oh oh
I can't hide it anymore, yeah, will you lose for me?

Yeah, one more round
Two more round, it's risky
You know but you act like you don't
I like it but I act so chic
The line of our emotions is so tense
Final round

Our love game
It's getting more interesting
No one knows how it will end

Our love game
The tension of pulling and pushing
It's getting harder to breathe
I can't stop this feeling
