

Everything

Labrinth

Lately, I feel like my mission is completed
I've been dotting Is and crossing Ts, yeah
Planets are aligned, so if I'm dreaming
Don't open my eye

I was always looking now I look no more
Love was always cooking through a steel-plated door
Now I'm in the kitchen sipping love you songs
I'm having a dish I never had before

Everything, everything I require
Everything, everything that I could desire
Now I feel like the richest man in the world
But it ain't money, putting gold into my hand
Baby don't you know it's you
That gives me everything

Listen (Oh), let me tell you all a little secret (Oh)
Always thought that love was some kind of weakness (Oh)
Turns out it's everything I would have dreamed it'd be
Now I see

Everything, everything I require
Everything, everything that I could desire
Now I feel like the richest man in the world
But it ain't money, putting gold into my hand
Baby don't you know it's you
That gives me everything
