

Miracle

Labrinth

Woo-ooh-ooh-ooh
Ooh-ooh-ooh, yeah
See, see, see, now

We're all layin' here in the dark, in the dark
Wishing Eden was back to what, what it was
When all of the lights and cameras fade
Yeah we ain't no saints
Just empty heads and lonely hearts, lonely hearts

Water to Merlot
Pave me a way through the dark

Take me to someplace safe
And take away this pain
Yeah, I can hope and pray
But who can save this day?
Ah-ooh-ooh-ooh
Tell me the world's alright
Ah-ooh-ooh-ooh
Can't tell me the world don't mind a miracle

Can't tell me the world don't mind a miracle
Can't tell me the world don't mind a miracle

You've been crying here way too long, for way too long
Feel so empty, we pay for joy, broken songs
Now won't you shine a light on the darkest days?
Till we see the sweet sun's rays
God knows I ain't had faith for nothing, had faith for nothing

Share out your beacon
Pave me a way through the dark

Take me to someplace safe
And take away this pain
Yeah, I can hope and pray
But who can save this day?
Ah-ooh-ooh-ooh
Tell me the world's alright
Ah-ooh-ooh-ooh
Can't tell me the world don't mind a miracle

A miracle
Can't tell me the world don't mind a miracle
Yeah!
Can't tell me the world don't mind a miracle
(Yeah!)
Can't tell me the world don't mind a miracle

Father, won't you lend a hand?
Take us to the promised land
Hey freedom's gonna make a stand
Heaven, won't you lend a hand?
