

Pull Me In

Labrinth

I've been so far, I've been so far from your grace
Yeah, I've been so far, I've been so far from you, baby
I feel your love callin' me
I feel your love callin' me again
I feel your love callin' me
I feel your love, but see this time around
I let it pull me in
I let it pull me in, yeah
I let it pull me in

Oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah, oh
Oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeah, oh

Roses are roses and violets are violets
Fuck all that shit, we're already there
You thought about me even through the silence
When I opened, I disappeared

I know I've been twisted inside my head
Ain't no good shit to hold on to
And still you wanna bring me back from the dead
Oh, sir, do you?

Been so far, been so far from your grace, yeah
Yeah, I've been so far, been so far from you, baby
I feel your love callin' me
I feel your love callin' me again
I feel your love callin' me
I feel your love, let's see this time around
Let it pull me in
I let it pull me in, yeah
I let it pull me in

Oh, yeah (oh, yeah)
Oh, yeah (oh, yeah), oh yeah, oh yeah, oh
Oh yeah (oh, yeah), oh yeah (oh, yeah), oh yeah, oh
