

Stardust and Ashes

Labyrinth

Scream from the top of your lungs
All you despair
Hear the echo of your regrets
There is an inner voice that says
Don't complain!
You're made of stardust and ashes my friend

Is this the beginning or the end?
History repeats itself over and over
Is this heaven's gate or just the hell?
We'll find it out between the dusk and darkness

Feel deep inside down the pain you have caused
Stop the blame someone else, face your guilt!
Cry a river of tears to save your soul
Pay for your dues there is too much to do

Is this the beginning of the end?
History repeats itself over and over
Is this heaven's gate or just the hell?
We'll find it out between the dusk and darkness

Is this the beginning of the end?
History repeats itself over and over
Is this heaven's gate or just the hell?
We'll find it out between the dusk and darkness
