Bad Things

Lacuna Coil

La la la, la la la
La la la la, la la la
Oh-oh oh, oh-oh oh
Oh-oh oh-oh, oh-oh oh

I will leave you crawling
When our worlds collide
Gonna break these damn walls down
And drag you out
We melt into nothing
In an empty sky
My darkest soul unfolds
I embrace this rage

Bad things hurt so good
Bad things dig deep inside you

You still feed the monster
With these endless lies
I will crush your empire down
Till it fades away
Was it all for nothing?
My revenge prevails
Searching in the dark
I embrace this rage

Bad things hurt so good
Bad things are deep inside you
Bad things feel so good
Bad things slowly consume you

Let things come
Let things go
Let the monster take control
Let things come
Let things go
Let the monster take control

Bad things hurt so good
Bad things are deep inside you
Bad things feel so good
Bad things slowly consume you

La la la, la la la
La la la la, la la la
La la la, la la la...
La la la la, la la la...
