

Black Feathers

Lacuna Coil

I want to know
What's inside
I cut her open
She doesn't bleed out
Like a river
She has run dry
I try to grab her
She turns away
She turns away

I can't believe that she's not real
She's all I ever wanted
No one can hear the whispering
She keeps on drifting away

I can see you under a veil of memories

She takes me away

We have lost our gravity

Break my fall

Let's let the wind decide
Where we are going to fall
Soaring to a destination

Black feathers in the storm
We are right where we belong
Carried by our desolation

I can't let go
She gets me high
She's just a shadow
But feels so alive
Like a vision
In my eyes
I try to grab her
She fades away

I can see you under a veil of memories
She fades away
We have lost our gravity
Break my fall

Let's let the wind decide
Where we are going to fall
Soaring to a destination

She takes me away

Black feathers in the storm
We are right where we belong
Carried by our desolation

Break my fall

She takes me away

Can't let go

Black feathers in the storm
Where will we fall?
Will we ever be home?

Let's let the wind decide
Where we are going to fall
Soaring to a destination

She takes me away

Black feathers in the storm
We are right where we belong

Can't let go
