

Gravity

Lacuna Coil

Decretum fatale
Aeterna sententia
Cruciatus immanis
Servitus perpetua

Decretum fatale
Aeterna lacuna
Divinum refugium
Nefasta fortuna

Drag me down

Feel the adrenaline in my veins
As I float in despair
With a stone around my heart
I hold my mind in place
Through dark avenues
Of depression and hate
Pull me down

I have to fall down to climb back on top
I know how it goes when it's gone too far
But the center of my gravity is now shattered
I can't find the balance that i've lost

Ground myself to earth
On the verge of abduction
Forget about the life I used to know
Where am I really from?
Distance and time
Are gonna live inside
'Til the bitter end
Pull me down

Where do we go
When we are not tangible anymore?
Do we travel on a trail of clouding light forever?
Or we disappear somewhere we can't be seen
And fall asleep into eternity?

It's gone too far
I will fall down
I've gone too far
I'm falling down
