

Through the Flames

Lacuna Coil

I sit and watch you burn
A spark of light
Ignites the fire
Get this lesson learned
Don't be scared
You'll rise to be divine
Let this cleanse your soul
Take it apart
Piece by piece
Let it run in our blood
The deeper it goes the darker it gets

Face me
I need you to understand
Lit the flame
And let this be the end
Consume me
But I will not repent

Face me
Face me

I'll shut down our world
Heretic thoughts
Torture your mind
There is no reward
While I see your face
Through the flames
Point of no return
The demons you hide have eternal life
Let them burn in your blood
The deeper they go the darker it gets

Face me
I need you to understand
Lit the flame
And let this be the end
Consume me
But I will not repent

Face me
Face me

And now the sun is coming down
The gates of dusk are waiting for us
Please remember me
I know it is too late
But promise
You will spread the ashes of our past

Face me
I need you to understand
Lit the flame
And let this be the end
Consume me
But I will not repent
Face me

Face me
