

Losing Kind of Love

Lacy J. Dalton

You're lookin' for someone to love
For tonight
Well, that's alright

And I'm gonna let you get away with your plans
'Cause I need a man
You'll be standing in tonight for a memory

And I'll be easy
'Cause there's a losing kind of love
Inside of me

It ain't always been like this
Once there was meaning in a kiss
Now kissing you just carries on the memories I'm living on I'm confessing, can't you see
You're standing in for a memory
Of a losing kind of love inside of me

When I look over in the morning light
And you're not there
It'll be alright

'Cause you'll have helped me make it through the night
Pretending it was him
That held me tight

But it won't be easy to face this losing kind of love
Losing kind of love
There's a losing kind of love inside of me
