LADIPOE

LADIPOE, Fireboy
And Vibez man
Here's another story
From a bad man

There's no time
There's no energy
I'm just running
Running, running
Sweet white wine
'Cause there's no Hennessy
I'm just running
Running on vibes

Even though the country
Don dey tire me
I dey catch cruise
Eko Miami
If only bad news could be bribed
Take all my money
I like my lies sweet
Tastes like irony

But that's the reason
I dey vex my nigga
Heavy is the head
But forget my nigga
Crown don dey bend
From the stress my nigga
It's getting hard to suppress my liquor

So I'm drinking more wine
At four thirty
I'd rather be online
Than out with company
Man I'm tryna numb my mind
The thoughts are too heavy
'Cause life is no joke we cope with comedy

I really no dey see your face
That's why we switch lanes
No dey indicate
Everybody wan blow
Who dey pick the date
God when will I be the one that they imitate
But most times I feel no one can relate
When

There's no time
There's no energy
I'm just running
Running, running
Sweet white wine
'Cause there's no Hennessy
I'm just running
Running on vibes

There's no time
There's no energy
I'm just running
Running, running
Sweet white wine
'Cause there's no Hennessy
I'm just running
Running on vibes

Afrobeats or na kpangolo
I took that shit international
Ain't leaving until it's time to go
Galloping like I'm an antelope
Ou ha
I took it personal
Lone soldier me I dey stand alone
Me I dey fight for my envelope
But me I no fit to dey fight alone
Ou ha

And you don't have to bro
What's a vaccine to an antidote
Blood, sweat, tears in my engine o
If you smell success that's my cologne

Broke almost every code
Still I got fans filling every row
This anointing from the microphone
And that's on God only heaven knows

There's no time
There's no energy
I'm just running
Running, running
Sweet white wine
'Cause there's no Hennessy
I'm just running
Running on vibes

There's no time
There's no energy
I'm just running
Running, running
Sweet white wine
'Cause there's no Hennessy
I'm just running
Running on vibes

I've been running for life
Pastor said I've been running from life
Tank on E I'm just running on vibes
Sweet white wine with some Henny combined
Let me unwind

Coz it's heavy all night
I don't want any on mine
You can unfriend me online
I'm just running
Running running on vibes
