

Chance Of Rain

Lady A

Take my hand
I wanna let you go and wreck my plans
I wanna memorize that look in your eyes when the sun starts to rise
Come on, take my hand

So why you holding back, holding back?
Let's dive on in and just be done with that, done with that
Baby, 'cause

Never going all in 'cause you're scared of goodbye
Is like never seeing Paris 'cause you're scared to fly
Never falling in love 'cause a chance of pain
Is like never seeing summer 'cause a chance of rain (Chance of rain)
Never feeling that sunshine
Getting under that blue sky
Them toes in sand, drink in hand
'Cause a chance of rain

Girl, put down your guard
It's like there's yellow tape around your heart
Don't wanna be the storm that blows on in and hurts you again
Come on, put down your guard, whoa

Never going all in 'cause you're scared of goodbye
Is like never seeing Paris 'cause you're scared to fly
Never falling in love 'cause a chance of pain
Is like never seeing summer 'cause a chance of rain (Chance of rain)
Never feeling that sunshine
Getting under that blue sky
Them toes in sand, drink in hand
'Cause a chance of rain
Oh, no

So don't keep holding back, holding back
Let's dive on in and just be done with that, done with that We'll never know if we never try, never try
We might be standing on the edge of a paradise, oh

Never going all in 'cause you're scared of goodbye
Is like never seeing Paris 'cause you're scared to fly
Never falling in love 'cause a chance of pain
Is like never seeing summer 'cause a chance of rain (Chance of rain)
Never feeling that sunshine
Getting under that blue sky
Them toes in sand, drink in hand
'Cause a chance of rain

Never feeling that good time
Sunburning 85
Don't say you can't take my hand
'Cause a chance of rain
Chance of rain
Oh, chance of rain, yeah
Oh no, yeah
