

Where Would I Be

Lady A

Where would I be
If I hadn't spent that summer
Waiting tables in my hometown?
Oh, where, where would I be?
If I hadn't spilled your drink
And you never asked me out

Would I even know the magic
Of something meant to be

Where would I be without your love
And what would I do if I woke up
One day and found out this was all a dream?
Where would I be without your soul?
Reminding me I'm always home
As long as I can hear your melody

God only knows
If you never found me
Where would I be?
Whoa, whoa, whoa

Where would I be
If I never been to Georgia
Played that bar on Athens street?
Oh where, where would I go?
If you ever left, I'd never make it
One day on my own

'Cause baby, no one knows me like you do
You're the one thing in this world that I can't lose

Where would I be without your love
And what would I do if I woke up
One day and found out this was all a dream?
And where would I be without your soul
Reminding me I'm always home?
As long as I can hear your melody

God only knows
If you never found me
Where would I be?
Whoa, whoa, whoa

Without your kiss, without your laugh (Without your laugh)
Without your life, where would I be? (Where would I be?)
Without your hand in mine
Without you here, where would I be?

Where would I be without your love
And what would I do if I woke up
One day and found out this was all a dream?
Oh, where would I be without your soul?
Reminding me I'm always home
As long as I can hear your melody

God only knows

If you never found me
Where would I be?
Whoa, whoa, whoa (Oh-oh)

Where would I be? Where would I be? Oh