

You Keep Thinking That

Lady A

You keep thinking that (You keep thinking that)
You keep thinking, thinking, thinking that

You're probably thinkin' I ain't handlin' this well
I'm drinkin' on a Monday in heartbreak hell
You're probably thinkin' that I'm sleepin' by myself
And I'm wonderin' what you're doin' right now

I, I, I
I hate to break it to ya
I'm doin' better since you've been gone
Sorry, boy, you got it all wrong

But you keep thinking that
I want you back, drownin' in Jack
I'm still holdin' on, still lonely
Ain't even close to over you
You keep thinking I
Lay here and cry, night after night
Like you're the one and only
One movin' on, well, I got it bad
You keep thinking that
Ooh-ooh-ooh

You're probably thinkin' that I'm pacin' down the hall
I bet you think your picture's still hangin' on the wall
Got the idea that I'm waitin' for your call
Like I got nothin' better to do

I, I, I
I hate to break it to ya
That I've been seein' someone new (Someone new)
And he ain't anything like you

You keep thinking that
I want you back, drownin' in Jack
I'm still holdin' on, still lonely
Ain't even close to over you
You keep thinking I
Lay here and cry, night after night
Like you're the one and only
One movin' on, well, I got it bad
You keep thinking that

Ooh-ooh-ooh
You keep thinking that
(You keep thinking)
(You keep thinking that)

You keep thinking that
I want you back, drownin' in Jack
I'm still holdin' on, still lonely (Oh)
Ain't even close to over you
You keep thinking I
Lay here and cry, night after night
Like you're the one and only
One movin' on, well, I got it bad

You keep thinking that

(You keep thinking)

You keep thinking

(You keep thinking that)

You keep thinking that

That I want ya, that I need ya, no

(You keep thinking)

You keep thinking that
