

Colorcoded

Lady Lamb

I didn't go out to the balcony to see
The earth come between the sun and moon
I assumed the show wasn't for me
'Cause when I glanced at the sky, it seemed like any other night
And I just opened the door and craned my neck
I coulda seen it, I coulda seen it

Coulda seen it, coulda seen it, coulda seen it

She shared a picture of all of her sweaters
Color-coded in her closet
And I admit I took a screenshot
And combed through the rows for the ones I remember
The ones I once felt wrapped around her shoulders
And I could see us, I

I could see us, I could see us, I could see us, us
I could see us, I could see us, I could see us, us

This Halloween was a dream together
In the East Village with all the devils wearin' leather
Pushin' through crowds of knockoff heroes and clowns
To get on down to your new apartment

I wanna see it, oh oh oh, oh oh oh
Ah ah ah, ah ah ah, ah ah ah, ah ah ah

I've never been in love, I know that sounds like a lie
It's just never been quite right and I'm not certain
What a good love is really made of
I just know I wanna see you often

I wanna run where it's right and make you laugh in the park
Do my very best to understand you
I'll be embarrassed to dance and really swing my arms
To wrap them all the way around you

Around you, around you, ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh, ooh ooh ooh, ooh ooh ooh, ooh ooh ooh
