

Do Something

Lady London

I might do something to you
I might do something to you
I might do something to you
Oh baby, oh
I might do something to you
I might do something to you
I might do something to you
Oh baby, oh

I like the finer things in life
Designer and the flights
I got Gabbana on an island
With a bottle in the ice
I swear to God it's been a night
My heart and mind is in a fight
But if the cards could get aligned
I wouldn't mind to be your wife
I gotta advise
So that it's not a surprise
I know you like me
'Cause you swipe up and send me the eyes
You probably a nice dude
But tryna entice who?
With flowers that never die
And some overpriced fruit?
(Edible arrangements)
I think you cappin'
I need action
Look, fuck all the yappin'
I need passion
You really don't get it or understand?
Keep saying you'll spend a band
Ok pa, and?

What you gon' do?
How you gon' move?
You say you "that dude" but now you mute
Send me some loot
You hit the Zelle?
I might climb the top of Clase Azul
Til I hit the bell

I might do something to you
I might do something to you
I might do something to you
Oh baby, oh
I might do something to you
I might do something to you
I might do something to you
Oh baby, oh

I might do something to you too
It's hardly been the same
And since we've been together
It's the calm within the rain
I know my sign is water
So a solid and a steam

I could give you ice cold
Or be the smoke within the flame
I'ma Cancer
So romantic is my standard
But there ain't a Cancer that's not damaged
I need passion to keep me from back-tracking
My ex's got a bad habit
Of knowing my sex patterns
Come and do it to me
Prove it, show it
I wanna believe it
Make a movie for me
On your story, so I can see it
I like privacy
On both ends
Emoji over ya face, in close friends
I'm more private than a G5
I'm private as a lear
Private as an island where the population's zero
I'm silent
I like shopping
I like vibing when I chill
Niggas link me and they get to posting comments on my reels

I might let you think of me
In the late night
Leave you tongue tied
Energized
In a room
Got me hypnotized
Oh baby, oh

I might do something to you
I might do something to you
I might do something to you
Oh baby, oh
I might do something to you
I might do something to you
I might do something to you
Oh baby, oh

I might let...
